DESCENDANTS OF ABRAHAM AND KATHARINA EICHER MOSSER

The information given here comes from a booklet written by one of the daughters of the above named couple in 1914. Mrs Resina Mosser Gerber had it published by one of her grandsons in the state of Washington. She sent a few extra copies to some of her nieces. Mrs. Jacob C. Schindler received hers on Jan. 5, 1915. My mother told me her grandfather had no relatives around here, and he spelled his name with a double s. The grandmother had some Eicher cousins; I never heard of any brothers or sisters. Some of the cousins moved from Wayne County, O. to Kitchener, Canada, and from there to Elkton, Michigan. There are two branches of Eichers and a certain Dr. Eicher in Chicago, now deceased, received people from both branches as his relatives.

Quotation from the booklet: "My father, Abraham Mosser, was born in Switzerland in 1794. My mother was born in Alsace in 1801. They were married in Alsace when mother was 22 years old. They had three small sons when they came to America.

Father took up a homestead one mile northeast of what is now Orrville, Ohio. There were 100 acres in the homestead, most of it timber. Father cut trees to build a two-room log house and a log barn.

Here six more children came to them, and little Jacob, who was their baby when they came to America, died when he was five years old.

They planted a large orchard of apples and cherries, and about the year 1840 they built a stone house with a cellar under the whole house. I was born in the new house on March 19, 1842. Three younger children came afterward.

My parents were Mennonites. These people had a strong church in our community, they held meetings every two weeks. The meetings were held in the homes of the members and often times in the barn if the house did not accommodate them.

When I was ten years old a railroad was built from Massillon to Wooster, only one mile south of our place. Orrville was not commenced until that first railroad came through. Their address was Wooster. Father had bought 60 more acres and the survey cut the place diagonally in two from southeast to northwest. So father sold the land to the railroad company for $4,500.

We left Wayne county, O. on April 3, 1854, to move to Adams Co., Ind. where Father had bought 160 acres for $3,400. Father, mother and two small sisters went on the train. My brothers, Peter and Solomon and sisters Mary, Fanny, Anna and myself went in wagons. We were on the road eight days.

Our new place had a two-room log house, a log barn, a small orchard and a well. We soon built an addition to the house and cleared all the land but twenty acres.

This farm is on Rd. 116, south of Linn Grove, on the east side of the road, and on the west side of the road is the cemetery where there is a long row of Mosser graves. Abraham Mosser was a horse trader and kept high bred cows. He kept at least two hired hands.

My grandfather Schindler worked for him for six years before he was married.

I will now quote from her booklet again: Christian, my oldest brother was married and has five children. His wife was killed in a rail accident. Later he married Sophie Pontius and they had one son. (I do not know this family, but Reicheldecker's in Geneva had some connection with this family.) A widow from Christian's family married the elder Reicheldecker, so they are really not of the Mosser family.

Roman numerals are children and cardinal numbers are grandchildren:
